The army has disappeared from the aggregate population, and not seriously interfered with trade and agriculture. All preparations have been made for the winter. The cabinet considers it probable that war will be declared at an amicable settlement of the difficulty reached. The nation is in a good humor to this business once and for all. The general opinion is that England is better prepared for the war than the United States. The cause of the war in the Persian land also 70,000 men to India. India was before so tranquil. REBUADD.

IN THE HOUSE OF COMMONS

March 26. — In it commons this evening, one said England had protested against France in declaring rice contraband. This announcement was greeted with John Whitney asked whether the Venezuelan Government had ceded large territory in British Guiana to an American named Fitzgerald who formed a limited company for the purpose of opening the country and developing its resources. Ashley said the question was still in the air. The company had not entered into possession of the territory and had taken steps to prevent the same from so doing.

Drummond Wolf, conservative asked me in view of the fact that ice was vanishing in British sea, the government was prepared to purchase the ice.

James Brassey, secretary to the admiralty

ed, replying to Baron D'Urmah, said he really was not aware that the British man-of-war had been ordered by Sir Caird, as announced in Sunday's cable dispatch.

The common-to-night debate on the Egyptian question was dull. The attention of most members gathered in the lobby was absorbed in their newspapers. Owing to the lack of interest shown, the Liberals called for a division three hours discussion. The conservatives opposed the motion and the speaker decided that debate should continue. The government expressed its opposition to any further delay.

Neither side is concerned in the relations with Russia over shadowing anything else.

THE HARBUT WANTS TO PLAY IN LONDON.
LONDON, March 26.—Sirley Berghard and his friends are making a strong effort to reverse the verdict against the production of "Theodora" in London. The play is characterized by a plot in which the actresses hope that they may be allowed to play "Theodora" in England, and that the code of British officials will not force the curfew code of Morris so far as to prevent a performance.

HEAVY FAILURE.
LONDON, March 26.—The Standard says the sales of Harcourt and Co. men's suits, which failed, amount to a million pounds. The fall in the price of the suits is estimated at just an amount announced that the liabilities of Harcourt are £28,000. It is expected that a dividend will be paid.

THE DARK SIDE OF THE CAMPAIGN

MARCH 26 The Duke of Cambridge forced the Central Board to the position of a "dark horse" in the Central committee by the advice of the "Sunken" in causing a discordant among the officers and men. It is asserted that a decisive attack on Tamlal has been made in consequence of a breakdown of the transport and equipment of the company and the Sepoys when facing the Arabs in the last Sunday. The force that will attack Tamlal is composed solely of British and Sikh regiments.

GENERAL MONTELEONE'S DEparture from Jerusalem in a supplementary dispatch, that during the morning's march from Nisimom
he was not a camel nor load was lost. Some suffered slight sunstrokes. The animals were all well. The march was a success, with the exception of such ailments as are caused when the troops are healthy.

LEAVING THE BUSINESSES,

British parties of troops are engaged in clearing the bushes of Arabs along the coast. The British position has been strengthened by the discovery that communication kept up over the telegraph, which will operate successfully at a distance of about sixty miles.

THE WAR IN CHINA.

THE FRENCH REPULSED AT DONG DANG.
March 28. A dispatch from General Negadon Dong Dang, March 24 last, "Chinese captured the first line of forts guarding the city at Bupha.
